三、題組 (共 10 題-30 分)

Everyone wants to be happy, but what is the key to happiness? Studies have shown people who are happy are not people with a lot of money. They are the people who forgive others and let go of negative emotions which take away happiness. They do things that they enjoy and are good at. They get enough sleep, eat well, and spend time in the great outdoors. Happy people have good relationships with others and spend time building true friendships. They like to help others, and their friends are there for them, too. They also remember the things that they are grateful for. So, what's your key to happiness?

1. () What is the main idea of the reading?
 - ① What to do to feel grateful.
 - ② How to be truly happy.
 - ③ How to build true friendships.
2. () Which is NOT true about happy people according to the reading?
 - ① They are kind and helpful.
 - ② They enjoy what they do.
 - ③ They rarely have a good rest.
